"Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house"

Psalm 26:8

Pastor's Message

The Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is His new creation
By water and the Word:
From heaven He came and sought her
To be His holy bride,
And with His own blood He bought her,
And for her life He died.

There is a legend from ancient times in which Gabriel is supposed to have approached our Lord upon His return to heaven following His earthly ministry, with this question: "Since you have now left earth, what provisions have you made for the continuation of your work among men?" And the Savior answered him: "I have told Peter and John and James and the rest of the Apostles and they will tell it unto those who are nearest them and they will in turn tell it unto others and so on till the end of time." But suppose," retorted Gabriel, "that they do not tell it unto others, what provision have you made then?" And Jesus answered him, "I have made no other provision."

What a challenge this offers to the Church of Jesus Christ today. Our Lord has placed upon us the responsibility of transmitting the "good news of Jesus Christ" to all peoples that the Church of tomorrow will not suffer because of our neglect, but rather be a mighty fortress whose sole foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord.

May the festivities of this anniversary celebration center around a spirit of re-dedication on the part of the Hyde Park United Presbyterian Church, that it may continue to be a spokesman of God's transforming grace, sending its sacred message to coming generations until the end of time. And may its message find lodgement in human lives which shall be transformed into the likeness of Jesus Christ, who is the head of the Church. "That He might present it unto Himself a glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish." (Ephesians 5:27)

History of the Congregation

"When they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith . . ." Acts 14:27

The Hyde Park United Presbyterian Church had its first beginnings in the forward looking minds of the Session of the Stamford Ontario United Presbyterian Church during the late 1920's. The session of that church requested Miss Mildred Kiemele to conduct a preliminary survey in Niagara Falls, New York, to determine the best sight for the founding of a new Sunday School.

Caledonia Presbytery, convinced that the Hyde Park area promised a suitable location for a Sunday School, accepted the recommendations of the Stamford Church Session and appointed Miss Ida Lewis as Bible School Missionary in May of 1929. The work was begun in a home at 2818 Michigan Avenue (now the manse) after the house and adjoining lots had been purchased by the Board of Home Missions of the United Presbyterian Church of North America. The work continued under the sacrificial labors of Miss Lewis in conjunction with the Stamford Church Session until December of 1930 when the work was transferred to the care of the Riverside United Presbyterian Church Session of Buffalo, New York.

House at 2818 Michigan Avenue

Miss Ida Lewis

Mr. Walter Bickerton

Mr. Walter Bickerton was appointed Sunday School Missionary and began his work the first Sabbath of January, 1931, continuing until January 8, 1933. Despite circumstances difficult to imagine, his able leadership led to an efficiently organized Sunday School and twenty members being received by the Riverside Church Session into the membership of this newly formed body.

Caledonia Presbytery, recognizing the need of the mission for a resident minister, appointed the Rev. George B. Hassey as stated supply. He began his work January 15, 1933. On the evening of March 29, 1933, the Hyde Park congregation was constituted and organized by a duly appointed commission from Caledonia Presbytery, and the first elders, trustees and congregational officers elected.

A steadily growing church membership and Sunday School resulted in the session and trustees meeting jointly to consider the construction of a larger and more adequate place of meeting. The needs of the congregation were presented to Caledonia Presbytery, and upon their recommendation, the Board of American Missions of the United Presbyterian Church of North America gave a grant of $3,000 and permission to mortgage the property in the amount needed for expansion. This took place in July of 1933. Due to local and national conditions, it was not deemed advisable to immediately proceed with building plans.

On November 2, 1933 a meeting, for the purpose of incorporating the church under the name: The Hyde Park United Presbyterian Church of Niagara Falls, New York, was held. The incorporation proceeding culminated in January of 1934.

Rev. George B. Hassey

First Church Structure

At a meeting of the building committee early in August of 1934, the general contract for the new building was awarded to Mr. Hugh McConnell, a contractor and member of the church. Ground was broken for the church building on Sunday afternoon, August 12, and the cornerstone laid on October 7, 1934.

During these early years the membership grew beyond the 100 mark. The Women's Missionary Association was formed and grew into a strong body, giving significant support to the newly formed church through its spiritual enrichment and financial aid. The Young People's organization was furthered and the first scouting organization in the church was formed, Boy Scout Troup No. 8.

Rev. A. Vance Meanor

The Rev. A. Vance Meanor came to the Hyde Park Church as its pastor on October 23, 1938, following Mr. Hassey's resignation to accept a new field in Syracuse, New York. During the three years when Mr. Meanor was pastor, a strong Men's Organization was formed. Further advancement in the ministry to youth brought about the organization of a Cub Pack No. 8, a weekly religious education class for public school students, and the forming of a Church School Council. A significant mid-week Lenten series with guest speakers was held during these three years and the size of the session was increased due to growth in church membership.

Rev. Thomas Lamont

The Rev. Thomas Lamont began his pastorate at Hyde Park in January of 1942 following the conclusion of Mr. Meanor's pastorate on January first to become a chaplain in the service of his country. A most significant step in the history of Hyde Park Church took place in 1942 when the church became a self-supporting congregation. Until this time, all or part of the salary of the pastors had been paid by the Board of American Missions. The first church organ was purchased and dedicated on December 5, 1942. Soon it was decided to liquidate the mortgage on the church and this was accomplished after a successful campaign, with a mortgage burning service on March 19, 1944. Mr. Lamont, after four years of faithful service to this church, resigned in January of 1946 to accept a call to the United Presbyterian Church in Rochester, New York.

The Rev. Charles Pryor was installed pastor on June 14, 1946, by Caledonia Presbytery. The work at Hyde Park continued to grow and the need of larger facilities became more and more evident. It was during Mr. Pryor's pastorate that the church seriously started thinking about the need to expand the present church school and worship building. Mr. Pryor resigned in January of 1952 to accept a new pastorate in New Jersey.

The Rev. G. Loren Jones was installed as pastor in January of 1953. A redecoration of the church was accomplished by the members themselves, and rededication services were held in June, 1954.

At a congregational meeting in November of 1955, approval was given for a building committee to secure the services of an architect for presentation of preliminary drawings to the church. The new plans included an educational section which would provide for nine additional classrooms, a church office and study. Included in the plans was an enlarged sanctuary along with a complete renovation of the building.

The plans being approved by the congregation, ground was broken for the new building in October of 1956. The long awaited day finally arrived and on September 15, 1957 the congregation entered into the new church for the service of dedication. The new church building was not a breaking of tradition, but an assimilation of the years. The old building, which had served the congregation for many years, was not torn down but rather absorbed into the new. Following a most successful ministry at Hyde Park, Mr. Jones accepted a call to Lewistown, Montana, in June of 1959.

Rev. G. Loren Jones

Your present pastor, the Rev. Robert E. Backstrom, was installed by the Presbytery of Western New York on December 9, 1959. He is a graduate of Muskingum College and Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary.

The spirit of re-building and renovation that surged through the life of the Hyde Park Church during former years has continued to the present. During the past three years, the chancel has been completely renovated with new furnishings. A new Allen organ, stained glass windows, ten additional pews, and a baptismal font have been added to the sanctuary. Exterior carillons herald the hour of worship, and new church school worship centers and furnishings have added to the program of education. Most of these items, along with many more, have been made possible through the establishment of a Living Memorial Fund.

A Board of Deacons was organized in January of 1962 for the purpose of being instruments of the Church's ministry of compassion. The sharp increase in concern for the work of Christian missions during the past three years has resulted in our benevolence budget being increased by many times and the acceptance of a mission family through the Personal Interest Program of the denomination, the Rev. and Mrs. William Henry Jennings of Quirinopolis, Goias, Brazil.

The Sunday church school, for the first time, is now conducting classes through the summer months. A couple's club has been formed and a church lending library established.

The Hyde Park United Presbyterian Church has a history marked by all of the joys and pains involved in church growth. The church looks forward, with the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, to a continued ministry of Jesus Christ in this community and through missions to all communities.
